a pictorial essay in

TRANSITION

SAINT ANTHONY HIGH SCHOOL

In a predominantly technological era, society requires highly-trained people to meet its needs. St. Anthony High School, like all its academic counterparts, strives to meet such stringent and ever-changing requirements.

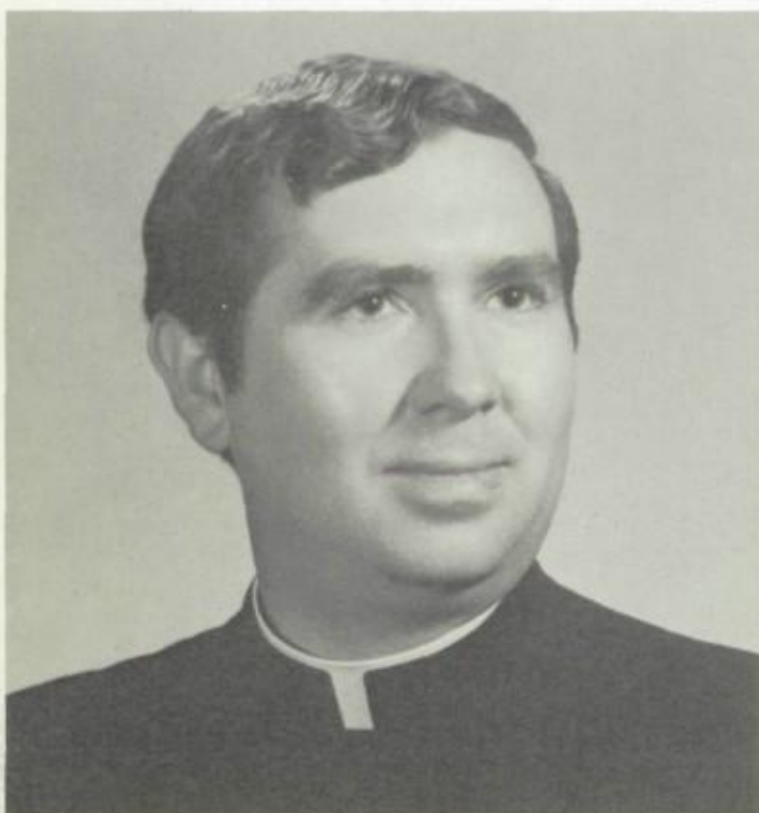

Change during this academic year is evident even to the casual observer—a new principal, a new diocesan superintendent of schools, new teachers, new courses, and new ideas. In brief, St. Anthony is responding to the expectations society will have of its graduates. However, this is but the veneer of the issue. Change is made manifest by the vitalism, by the resurgence of spirit throughout our academic community. In commemoration of this feeling, we dedicate this yearbook to the idea of transition.

DIOCESAN OFFICIALS

The Most Reverend
GEORGE W. AHR, S.T.D.
Bishop of Trenton

FATHER THOMAS LUEBKING
Diocesan Superintendent of Schools

Our diocesan officials and school administrators face an arduous task as they deal with the transitions in secondary school education. His Excellency Bishop Ahr and Father Luebking, the new superintendent of schools, formulate policy to affect orderly educational change.

In his role as the director of St. Anthony High School, Monsignor McCorristin works jointly with Sister Elizabeth Staudenmeier, our new principal, to meet the demands of a vital, yet ever-changing system.

—Henry David Thoreau

Memories light the corners of my mind,
Misty, water-colored memories of the way we were . . .

There was a time when we looked ahead four years, thinking how far away graduation was. So days piled upon days as we became closer to the end. Through each victory and each defeat, we remained together, grasping each moment that since has slipped away. Now we have no more to share than the memories of the way we were.

Senior year, a time to look back for one moment and to reflect on our cheerful blindness, suddenly changed to awakened responsibility. Joined together by bonds of time and place, the senior class is even more closely connected by bonds of friendship. By changing about in the future when we are no longer one as a body, but one together, we have made something to remember, something to think in spirit.

UNDERCLASSMEN

JUNIORS

As seekers of new designs, juniors stand in silent passageways, searching for the way that they will become, having placed aside the sophomoric way that they were. As juniors receive their school rings, they realize that they are indeed at an age of transition because adolescence is behind, while adulthood looms in the labyrinthine recesses of their souls.

SOPHOMORES

To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield are the promises formulated by sophomores upon their return in late summer. They trust that the commonplace dilemmas of freshman year have been resolved, and they appear to familiarize themselves more quickly with the routine of academe. They become more aggressive in the assertion of their own opinions, and seem less fearful of their own inadequacies. Yet, as the sages have noted, sophomores are nothing less than "wise fools."

FRESHMEN

"Hesitant," "apprehensive," and "frightened" aptly describe the responses of a freshman as he enters Saint Anthony High School for the first time. To find his locker, to memorize its impossible combination, and to locate all his classrooms are seemingly insuperable feats within the first days of the academic year. Somehow, as time passes, our fearful freshman adjusts to his daily routine and realizes more vividly his surroundings. As he approaches the threshold of adulthood, he will continue to stand "hesitant," "apprehensive," and "frightened."

Quarterback Vince Costa attempts to throw on the run.

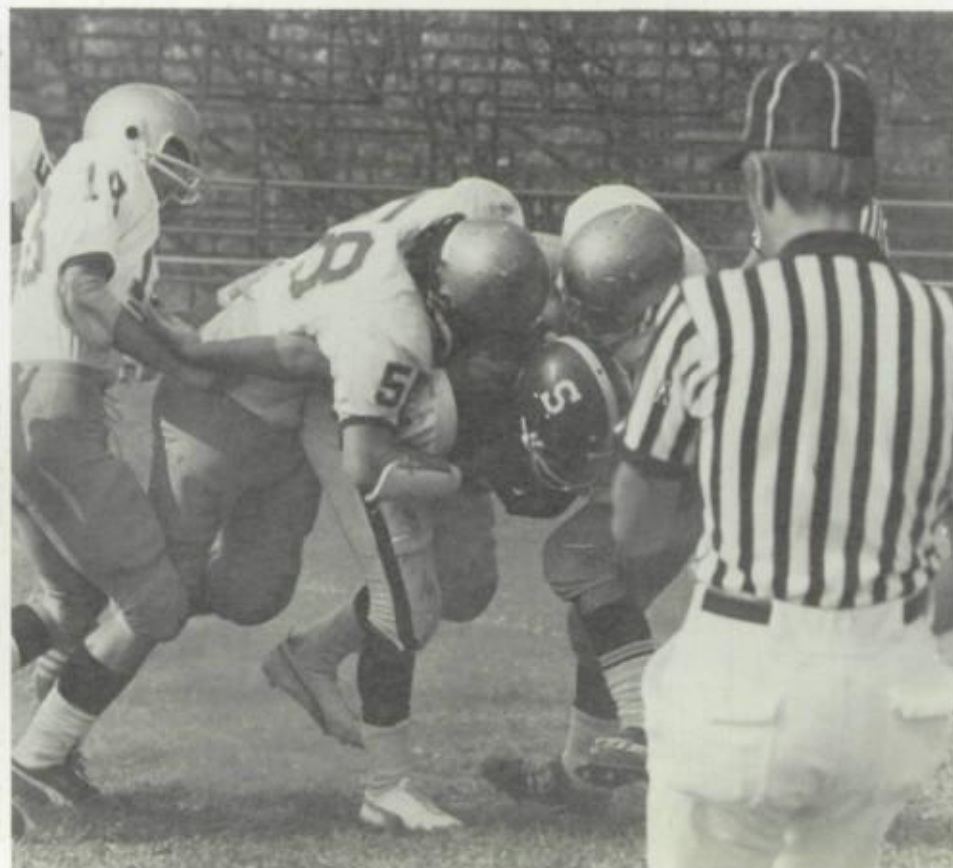

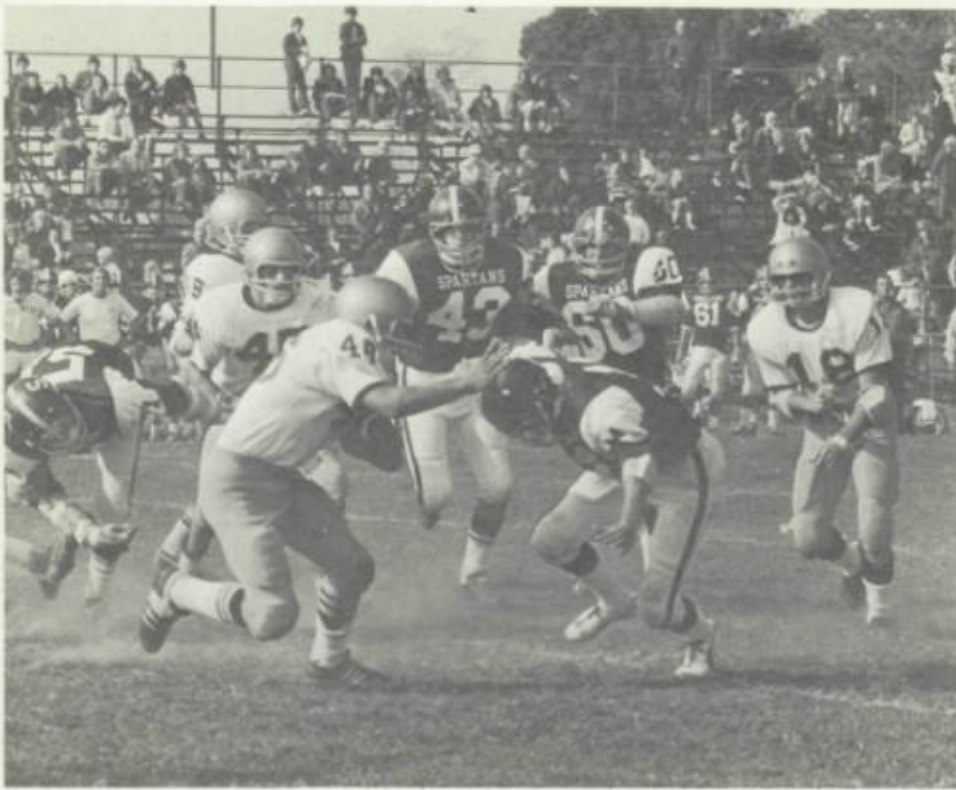

Inspired by the enthusiasm of new members, by the experience of lettermen, and by the winning attitude of new Head Coach Geoff Hill, the Iron Mike gridders expected to enjoy a productive season. Although it seemed that their hopes would not be fulfilled after four opening losses, the year was not totally unsuccessful. In their fifth contest, the Mikes defeated Steinert for the first time ever and concluded with a 1-8 record.

Senior John Friel highlighted this season by winning the Scholar Athlete Award. Key defensive player Mike Pica received honorable mention for the All-County Football Team.

SOCCER

Coach Tony Potenza ignited his Iron Mike booters to become the Parochial State Champs. Their 9-5-1 record is deceiving because the Mikes stormed through the latter part of the season, winning their last ten games which included three tournament games. Their capturing of the title is not only a tribute to all the outstanding players, but to Coach Potenza as well, since this was his first year as Varsity Head Coach.

Senior Denny Kinnevy had an exceptional year, tallying 33 goals and breaking the school record of 8 goals in one game.

Throughout the season, the Mikes demonstrated a winning drive and a hustle that could not be matched by any other team in the area.

New head coach, Jack Gallagher, began the season with one goal in mind—the earning of more respect as a basketball team. Previously thought of as pushovers, the Iron Mike Courtsters attained this respectability by their key victory over Steinert. Although the '73-'74 season proved somewhat disappointing, there were innumerable moments of excitement.

Seniors Charlie Didun, elected to the First Team All-County, Bob Linder, Fred Dumont, and sophomores Joe Puhalski and Tom Brennan, who both received Honorable Mention, gave S.A. fans something to cheer about. Able reserves Mike Potash, Joe Baranyi, Bob Jachetti and Walt Davis provided the additional spark needed on the court.

The J.V. and Freshman teams also deserve recognition. Although the J.V. team, coached by Kevin Gallagher, failed to earn a win, they gained valuable experience for their upcoming varsity careers. The freshman team had another brilliant season under the leadership of Kevin Logue, with several players showing great potential. All in all, S. A. fans can count on plenty of excitement and many more victories in the seasons to come.

Fred Dumont grabs an important offensive rebound.

Sophomore Joe Puhalski gets off a short jump shot.

"Four score and seven baskets ago, our opponents brought forth on this court a new team, conceived in leaping and dedicated to the proposition that all players are created equal . . ."

Jack West and Mike Smith take it all in stride.

Mike Pica in peak form.

At the start of the '74 track season, Head Coach Jack Lally expressed hopes for a winning slate. It seems probable that this will be a reality because this year's squad certainly abounds with ability.

Veteran sprinters Marty McDermott, Rick Mule, Jack West, Jerry Harcar, Al Rhodes, and Mike Smith supply great depth for the team. Seniors Mike Pica and John Friel represent the strength in the weight division. Eager underclassmen round out this year's track team.

Rick Mule is looking forward to breaking his own record in the 440, and Mike Pica should crush the shotput record as well.

Experience will play an important role in this year's varsity baseball team. They have it, and, if they can combine it with a winning spirit, a very successful season can be expected. Along with the players, all share in the hope that Coach Tony Potenza can once again lead his team to the State Championship. Their confidence should also help them throughout the season.

ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

YOUNG AND IN LOVE

May 18, 1973 marked a change of attitude among the juniors. Having received their school rings, the juniors realized that their high school years would soon be over and that preparation for the future must soon begin.

Such thoughts were soon dispelled as, that night, the park scene, enhanced by colors of lavender and silver, brought to life for the prom-goers the theme "Young and in Love."

BOB SHOO BOPS

Spellbound!

IN CONCERT

9.2 on the Richter rock scale.

March 15 was nostalgia night at St. Anthony's. The guests of honor were the fun-provoking Bob-Shoo-Bops. The band consists of 10 former Rider Students who revive memories of the fabulous 50's. Because of their appeal in '73, they returned to SA with their 50's attire, including slicked-back hair, leather jackets, and feather weight shoes. The overall effect proved successful as students present rocked and rolled their way back to those untroubled years of the 50's.

Rock on!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The St. Anthony High School Student Council of 1973-74, under the direction of Miss Lois Yencha, attained many of their goals through its perseverance and its unwavering determination. Although Student Council President Richard Mulé met with many obstacles during his term of office, his unceasing concern for a better school motivated students to strive for greater school spirit.

Members discuss plans for future activities.

Scholarship, character, leadership, and service are four qualities which members of our National Honor Society display in their actions throughout the year. Induction of these exceptional students took place in November. Their first undertaking is the bringing of the Christmas spirit to the senior citizens at Morris Hall. Various projects, under the guidance of Sr. Miriam Grace, such as tutoring and service to the school and community, fill their calendar for the whole year.

NUMBER TWO IN VIENNA

Speaking of Transition, what can one say about a group of students, who, within the period of five years, have marched from the football fields into the hearts of the Viennese? The Band Front, under the superb direction of Mr. William Donlen, is an activity which has brought much praise and honor to our school. It consists of 122 members: 54 in the Band, a Drill Team of 16, 12 Twirlers, and 40 Color Guard members. The long hours of hard work, which have resulted in sore, tired, disgusted, and happy performers, have really paid off. This group has claimed 56 trophies, awards, and honors, some of which include: the State Championship Color Guard Contest, and Second Place in the International Music Festival in Vienna, Austria.

NIGHT OF JAZZ

"Shoo-Be-Bop-Do-Bop!" were the musical notes that transformed St. Anthony's gym into a "Jazz Fantasia." Bouncy tempo and flashy rhythms were added by the presence of Alumni returning for their February extravaganza.

"A one and a two!" Director Pat Salerno leads band members in a snappy tune.

Members of the chorus Sandy Lanzoni, Rosemary Cooper, Paul Bachi, Cheri Bogdan, and Cindy Basler display their vocal talents during a number at the Night of Jazz.

Alumni add pizazz to the Night of Jazz Show.

A fight for the sparkling treasure chest ends with the capture of First Place for "Best Event" and "Best Costume" for the pirates of "Free Ride."

Second Place for "Best Costume" was awarded to Lisa Rossi's dancing "guys" and "dolls" in "There's No Business Like Show Business."

"TOYLAND" COMES TO S.A.

Transformed into a "vision of sugarplums," St. Anthony High School gymnasium provided the setting for the Ninth Annual G.A.A. Show. Six hundred girls, portraying anything from Raggedy Anns to popcorn, created a toyland for children of all ages. Led by Captains Sharyn McNeillis and Nancy Spalding, the Brown and Gold teams delighted friends, relatives, and guests with outstanding dances and gymnastic exhibitions. As the final night of competition approached, Mistress of Ceremonies Rosemary Cooper raised the brown flag which indicated the team's first win in three years. All too quickly, the Raggedy Anns stopped dancing, and the popcorn stopped popping "in hopes that next year soon would appear."

"Are you ready, frogs?" Jody D'Andrea's lilypadders proved they were ready by leaping to Second Place for "Best Event" and Third Place for "Best Costume."

"Twas the Night Before Christmas" as these mechanical cuties "wound up" in Third Place for "Best Event" in this year's G.A.A. Show.

"Nets to you!" thinks Spike Seaman as she waits for the ball to drop.

N A V Y

B A N D

Because of outstanding reaction last year, the Navy Band returned this year to put on an even better show. "Just You and Me," "2001, Space Odyssey," and "Anchors Aweigh" were just a few of the vibrant tunes they performed.

HOMECOMING

NOV. 10, 1973

Braving the cold, Sharyn McNellis, escorted by Joe Nocera, was happily crowned Homecoming Queen during half-time. Members of her court included: Phyllis Allegretti and Michael Fasanella, Lori Everitt and Carl Chianese, Lisa Rossi and Bill Welsh, and Nancy Spalding and John Russo.

SENIORS CAPTURE

The reflection of sparkling crystal chandeliers, the tables bedecked in royal red and golds, and the romantic notes provided by the John Tomasulo Quartet furnished a myriad of memories for the enchanted couples who attended the Senior Prom at the Cullora Restaurant in Bristol, Pa. The crowning of Rosemary Cooper as prom queen, escorted by Ralph Iorio, culminated the regal evening and, in fact, captured "time in a bottle."

TIME IN A BOTTLE

The Queen and King, Rosemary Cooper and Ralph Iorio, surrounded by their Court—Bette Anne Della Rosa and Al Paglione, Phyllis Allegetti and John Friel, and Ellie Silvestro and Frank Camera.

Roe Williams and her escort, Rick Caiazzo, prepare to leave the prom. Their faces shine with the happiness they have had that enchanting evening.

"The kids in Bristol are sharp as pistols when they do the Bristol Stomp" . . . Cynthia Basler enjoys some nostalgia at the Cullura in Bristol, Pa.
